Last week Tuesday evening about twenty-five of the neighbors and friends of Miss Nellie Stewart gathered at the home of her father, John W. Stewart. The occasion was a surprise shower in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Stewart and Ned Phillips, which took place this morning, and the plans were so well carried out that the surprise was genuine and complete. The evening was most pleasantly spent with games, visiting and singing by the company, Mrs. George Robson presiding at the organ. Included in the list of useful presents were linen, china, aluminum, silver and a cut glass fruit dish. A pleasant feature of the evening was the piecing of a quilt, each lady bringing a block and the hostess being required to assist in putting them together. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Grange Fair and Exhibit

The third annual School Exhibit, held in connection with the Grange Fair last Friday was the most successful of all. There was a large increase of entries in each class over that of last year. For the first time exhibits were sent in from every school in town, nineteen in all. Last year the total number of entries were about one hundred and fifty. This year there were two hundred and fifty-eight entries for prizes. In addition to these, there were exhibits of school work from most of the schools in town. The Grange committee did a large amount of work in preparation for the event and the results of their labors showed in the complete success of the affair. The entertainment by the Grange in the evening was largely attended and much enjoyed.

Among the five Morrisville merchants who had displays in town hall were Geo. P. Drowne, O. M. Waterman, F. C. Luce & Co., A. R. Campbell, Briggs, The Druggist, and Mrs. Geo. Tift, milliner.

The exhibit from the rural schools, graded schools and Peoples Academy was the best that has been shown before. From the Academy there were pictures from the different departments of the school. The agricultural department had a showing of different forms of soil and seeds. Also many bulletins, from various agricultural schools and experiment stations. The commercial department had books from typewriting, bookkeeping and stenography classes and two typewriters upon which second year students gave speed demonstrations during the forenoon. From the domestic science course were the following exhibits: Home Ec. 1, Sewing bags; Home Ec. 2, Quantities of food which would equal 100 calories of heat or muscular energy; Home Ec. 3, Canned fruit and cooking. From the rural and graded schools were free-hand drawings, colored maps and essays, which showed the careful drilling and fine training which they had received by their teachers. There were seventy-five entries of vegetables, forty-six in sewing, thirty-four in cooking, sixty-one in map drawing, and thirty-five in muscular movement writing. Improvement in the quality of the exhibits was noticeable. Prizes were awarded as follows:—

Funeral of H. L. Law

The funeral of Herbert L. Law, whose death from pleuro-pneumonia was announced in this paper last week, was held from the home on Jersey Heights last Friday afternoon, Rev. W. E. Baker of the Cong'l church officiating. The bearers were E. R. Brackett and son, William, of West Medford, Mass., H. W. McAllister of Waitsfield and B. A. Grimes of Hyde Park. Interment was in Riverside Cemetery in this village.

The funeral was very largely attended and the large and beautiful display of flowers, including set pieces and individual offerings, spoke eloquently of the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. A number of men, who have been working on the road with Mr. Law the past summer, the faculty of Peoples Academy and the class of '16, of which Linwood Law is a member, and the Maids of Philanthropy, Mrs. Law's class in the Congregational Sunday School, attended in bodies. Those from out of town, not mentioned elsewhere, were Mrs. Rosepha Palmer, Johnson; C. H. S. Cleveland, Wolcott; A. B. Alger, Stowe; Mrs. John Stiles and two children, Middlebury, and Mrs. E. R. Brackett, West Medford, Mass., relatives of the deceased; also C. A. Tomlinson and Mrs. A. J. Magoon, Stowe, and J. T. Jewett and wife, Hyde Park.

The deceased was born in Union, Me., January 16, 1862. He was united in marriage to Miss Nettie R. Brackett, daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. S. R. Brackett of Morrisville, on December 9, 1896. At that time he was employed in Taunton, Mass., where Mr. and Mrs. Law resided for a year, before coming to Morrisville eighteen years ago. Besides his wife he is survived by one son, Linwood, and a sister, Mrs. Hattie Keeler of Stoneham, Mass., and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Law was a man of quiet unassuming manner, a good citizen and neighbor, who will be greatly missed by many in this community.

The athletic sports held on the P. A. play grounds last Friday in connection with the Grange Fair, were witnessed by a large crowd and proved very interesting. They were in charge of Prin. Reynolds and Mr. Merrill and were participated in by a large number of the students—girls as well as boys.
